

Parent volunteers in the school

If you are helping and this is not included yet, please let us know and we will include you in a next edition.

Bookstore: voluntarily run by parents. Open daily between 10:00 and 13:00.

You will find school supplies, dictionaries, “strippenkaart”, PE shirts (for primary and secondary school) and a friendly chat.

Booster Club: parents are helping the sports department in coordination with Mark Jaspers, Athletic Director.

The school takes part in the International Schools Sport Tournaments with Girls Field Hockey, Boys Football, Girls and Boys Basketball (all senior teams) and is hosting tournaments for ISST as well as for other sport teams. To “boost” these events a group of parents helps out with cooking, baking and selling goodies.

Coordinator: Leen Maes

Focus on Learning Committee: organised by Jeff Shaw, Deputy head Curriculum.

The committee consists of several students, staff and parents forming a “think tank” on educational matters. A few examples: mentor program, gifted students, transition from primary to secondary, CIS accreditation

International Youth Orchestra: organised by Malcolm Davies, Head of Music Centre

The International Youth Orchestra (IYO) is a group of young musicians (ages approximately 11 to 18), who attend the various international schools around The Hague. The international language of music continues to foster connections and friendships between students of many different nationalities. Rehearsals are held at the International School of the Hague on Wednesday evenings 19.00 to 21.00, with a refreshment break. During the year a number of public concerts are held in The Hague.

Parents have ones a term chaperone duty. They stay during the rehearsal and provide snacks and drinks.
